

Doors Open London and Doors Open Middlesex Launch Event

London/Middlesex County– the London Heritage Council and Tourism Middlesex invite you to the launch event for Doors Open London 2011 and Doors Open Middlesex 2011. It's a signature year for both organizations as the London Heritage Council celebrates Doors Open London's 10th Anniversary. Also, Tourism Middlesex is celebrating what will be the 1st year of Doors Open Middlesex. Both organizations look forward to this exciting weekend learning about the rich heritage of our city and county. The London Heritage Council and Tourism Middlesex ask that you join us at:

Middlesex County Administrative Building
399 Ridout Street North.
September 11th, 2011
1:00pm-4:00pm
Open to the Public

This will not only be a chance to celebrate, but a rare opportunity when one of London's and Middlesex County's premier heritage buildings opens its doors to our guests. Tours of the jail in the Middlesex County Administrative Building will be offered as well as entertainment on the lawn. Also, cake and lemonade will be served. Remember that Doors Open London 2011 and Doors Open Middlesex takes place on Saturday September 17th and Sunday September 18th. Most sites are open between 10am and 4pm. You can find out more information about the launch event and the weekend at our websites.

Special Preview Performances

Henry Sovereign, Tom Thumb/Milly Doone, and Bridget Donnelly. These characters from the Odd Soul Stroll and the Lost Soul Stroll are part of the London Fringe Festival. We encourage you to check the full line up and these performances at the Festival at www.londonfringe.ca. These are just a preview of what they have to offer.
